ARCBISHOP'S FOREWORD

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

The past year has seen the world continue to be steeped in division, conflict and war. More than ever, we need to unite ourselves in faith, looking to the Lord Jesus, placing our trust in him as the Prince of Peace. It is in friendship with the Lord, that we find and know peace, in our hearts and in our world.

Uniting ourselves to Christ, practically and spiritually, needs to be a daily focus and offering. The power of prayer is often undermined or ignored in the wider world today, but faithful to God's word, we must continue to bring to prayer: our hope and dreams, our joys and sorrows. It is in prayer that we find the love and mercy of God. It is in prayer, that we can find a peace the world cannot give.

2024 was designated a 'Year of Prayer' by Pope Francis, in preparation for the Jubilee in 2025. A Jubilee year is an invitation to celebrate our faith and our love of Christ. In anticipation of 2025, we were invited to commit ourselves to prayer and to encourage others to open their hearts to the Lord Jesus. Our Archdiocese rose to this challenge, with many initiatives across the year. A particularly joyful memory for me was being joined in person and online by over 10,000 children and young people from schools and colleges across our Archdiocese in praying the rosary. This gave witness that young people today are not closed to prayer or faith. I saw first-hand how passionate and immersed in the rosary the children and young people were. We need to be courageous in reaching out to them so the Holy Spirit can work within us all.

The fruit of the Holy Spirit's work in our Archdiocese is beautiful to see. This year we saw a decade-high number of adults being received into the Catholic Church, many of them through baptism. What a joy it was to see the hundreds of people, who not only heard the Lord call their name, but opened their hearts so they could receive the fruits of his enduring love. We must never underestimate the power of invitation. And so, please continue to invite family, friends, colleagues and all whom you meet, to know the Lord Jesus – and let us all give loving witness to Him through our words and our actions.

Sharing the Good News of God's love is a duty placed upon everyone baptised into Christ. We want people of all nations to know the loving mercy and joy that comes from the life, death, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus. In sharing the good news of God's love, we not only fulfil our duty as baptised Christians, but we are reminded of how we are part of the Universal Church.

It was with this sentiment that I visited Nigeria in the summer of 2024. I witnessed for myself the depth and power of the Catholic faith within the people I met. Regardless of the circumstances, the name and person of our Saviour was clearly at the centre and focus of life. In Christ, we are members of His Body, united by love and called to a mission of service and mercy. This is the truth I kept in my heart later in the year, during the Second Session of the Synod in October. It is also one, we, in our Archdiocese, will adhere to as we move toward embedding the fruit of the synodal discernment.

So, my dear brothers and sisters, as we prepare to enter the Year of Jubilee, let us use it as an opportunity to be emboldened in our mission as disciples of Christ who delight in sharing the Good News. Let us rise to the challenge of spreading the message of hope that comes from the Lord Jesus. Let us, in whatever way we can, invite everyone we meet to find in Christ hope for this life and the life to come.

With the assurance of my prayers

Yours devotedly in Christ,

The Southwark Roman Catholic Trust

The Archdiocese of Southwark is a Roman Catholic Archdiocese in England. The Cathedral is St George's Cathedral, Southwark. The Archdiocese covers the London boroughs south of the River Thames, the county of Kent and the Medway Unitary Authority. The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Southwark Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) was established by a constitution dated 16 May 2017 (Registered Charity no. 1173050). The Trustees share the view that the Charity and the local Church, the latter being called 'the Archdiocese', are two distinct entities. They are bound together by the will of the Archbishop of Southwark, who must intend throughout his period of office to govern the Charity, in conjunction with the other Trustees, in support of the Archdiocese, as this is understood in Catholic theology and Canon Law and in accordance with Charity Law.

Established by Pope Benedict XVI on 15 January 2010, the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham (often referred to as the Ordinariate) has an equivalent status of a Diocese but covers all of England and Wales. The Ordinariate allows for "corporate reunion" of former Anglicans with the Catholic Church, while also preserving elements of a "distinctive Anglican patrimony".

*Several groups are based within the Archdiocese of Southwark please

DEANERY MENTORS

Some Definite Service is the diocesan-wide approach for parish growth in evangelisation, catechesis, and formation supported through local people, plans, and prayer.

Each parish priest has been invited to appoint three Parish Leads (one for evangelisation, one for catechesis and one for adult formation). These Parish Leads will be supported by up to sixty Deanery Mentors (commissioned by the Archbishop) who in turn are aided and accompanied by the Agency for Evangelisation and Catechesis. Information correct as of 1 November 2023. Latest appointments and information on how to become a Deanery Mentor or Parish Lead can be found on the Agency website: <https://aec.rcaos.org.uk/sds>

PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS NEED YOU

This Christian woman from Goza, Nigeria, was kidnapped by Boko Haram terrorists after an attack on her village. Her child was born in captivity.

Your prayers, support and action can make all the difference.

Please help ACN offer practical and spiritual assistance to Christian families around the world, who are suffering violence and persecution for their faith in Christ.

To book a Talk or Appeal, for our Schools Membership scheme or to join our annual #RedWednesday campaign for persecuted Christians, contact: Lorraine McMahon, Head of Community Outreach UK.

DIOCESAN LOGO

This logo is based on heraldic principles but has not been formally granted. The shield is divided into three parts, based on the three patrons of the diocese. The principal patron of the diocese is 'Our Blessed Lady conceived without sin' (8th December), and the two secondary patrons are St Thomas of Canterbury (29th December) and St Augustine, Apostle of England (27th May).

The upper part of the shield is a silver fleur-de-lys on a blue background, both the fleurs-de-lys and blue are symbols traditionally associated with our Lady.

The bottom left quarter shows three Cornish choughs (a bird of the crow family, pronounced 'chuff') as seen on the crest of St Thomas Becket (also on the arms of the city of Canterbury).

The final element, in the bottom right quarter, is an Augustine cross, a style of cross associated with Canterbury, dating back to at least 850AD, and therefore the close link of this form of cross to St Augustine of Canterbury, who was bishop in the city in the early 7th century.

Above the shield is displayed a Mitre, the liturgical hat worn by a bishop. Visible on the front of the mitre and on the two lappets (the short pieces of material which hang down from the back of the mitre) are three metropolitan crosses, indicating that Southwark is a Metropolitan Archdiocese.

In addition to the symbolism relating to the patron saints of the diocese on the shield, there is also a geographical significance. The blue at the top refers to the waters which form a major part of the boundaries of the diocese (the Thames and the Kent coast), and hence the dividing line between the top half of the shield and the lower quarters is a wavy line. The right lower quarter is green symbolising Kent, and the left quarter is gold to symbolise London.

Catenian Association are a network of Catholic men who meet regularly to enjoy each other's company and to help and support each other throughout the world. Founded in Manchester, Catenians can now be found in many countries and today are active throughout the U.K., Ireland, Australia, Malta, India, Bangladesh Zimbabwe, South Africa and Nazareth. two in-house charities; the Benevolent Fund which supports members and their families, and the Bursary Fund, which sponsors young persons in projects contributing to wider society at home and abroad. Golf societies throughout the Association join together in a National Golf Championship week every year and the Catenian Caravan and Camping Fellowship have a popular range of special events. The aims of the Association are: 1. To foster brotherly love among members and to develop social bonds among members and their families. 2. To support one another in the practice of the Catholic Faith. 3. To support and encourage Brothers, their families and widows as needs arise. 4. Consecrated Women. The Second Vatican Council restored the Order of Virgins, which dates from the early Church. Canon 604 speaks of this form of consecrated life, in which we are consecrated publicly by the bishop to live an independent life within the local Church community. Our vow is for life; each person's pattern of life is planned by her and approved by the bishop. She is responsible for her own finances. Other women are consecrated as Widows; both are described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC.922). Those who wish, meet once a year for a week of sharing and reflection at Hynning Monastery. This kind of vowed life combines freedom with commitment.

Legion of Mary. A worldwide organisation for evangelisation and Catholic action in parishes and as teams sent throughout the UK & Europe. The Legion is primarily, and of set purpose, dealing with the eternal salvation of souls, the spiritual needs of men and women today. As citizens and as members of the Christian community, they privately undertake the corporal works of mercy, but as Legionaries their explicit and immediate focus is the spiritual works of mercy. The range of works varies and Frank Duff prioritised them as Conversion, Conservation and Consolation. Teams also go on mission to all parts of the UK and Europe. The regular weekly meeting assigns pairs to perform "a substantial active legionary work, in the spirit of faith, and in union with Mary, in such fashion that in those worked for and in one's fellow members, the Person of our Lord is once again seen and served by Mary, his Mother." All spiritual works which are required by the Priest and in accord with the Legion's purpose & statutes, can be undertaken. However, the offering of material relief is left to other groups. In January 2016 its international statutes were approved ad experimentum by the Pontifical Council for the Laity. Subject to a five year waiting period, it expects to be permanently erected as an international Public Association of the Faithful by Pontifical Council for the Laity. Life Ascending (Ascent) A Catholic movement open to all men and women who have reached a 'certain age'. It encourages members to be messengers of peace and calm, especially to those hesitant or fearful about re-engaging with society. By studying the Holy Word together, members find answers to life's challenges and discern what the Lord asks of them in this stage of life. W: lifeascending.org.uk/groups/southwark Little Way Association. Helping the Missions – Patroness: – St Thérèse.

The Little Way is an Association of lay people in touch with thousands of priests, sisters and other missionaries throughout the world, supporting their work through prayer and financial assistance. The name comes from the "little way" of St Thérèse of Lisieux, and it was to promote this "little way" and to help missionaries spread the Gospel all over the world that The Little Way Association came into being 50 years ago.

Its aims are:

1. To help missionaries make Christ known and loved.
2. To follow the Little Way by imitating St Thérèse in her love of God and mankind; in her childlike simplicity and perfect confidence in God.
3. To pray for priests and missionaries and to support them and those they help in material ways.

The Little Way receives numerous requests from missionaries worldwide asking for help for their poor people. They are the multitudes in mission lands who suffer from hunger, from homelessness and the lack of medical care; they are the orphaned, abandoned and illiterate children, often ignored and exploited; sufferers from leprosy, refugees, victims of war and natural disasters, and those people with no knowledge of Christ. Many requests are also received for help to build, renovate or roof mission chapels; to build small houses for homeless people, to provide wells, and to support self-help projects, religious sisters and catechists, and to provide Mass Offerings for needy priests.

The Association makes no deduction for expenses from Mission donations – administration costs are covered by separate funds for which we appeal specifically. We keep donors informed as to how their donations are used and give them up-to-date information about life in the Missions today through booklets and the Catholic press.

Prayer for the Missions: Realising how much missionaries need the support of prayer, the Association helps to fulfil this need by regular Mass and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and by encouraging prayer for the Missions at the Little Way Theresian Centres in Lourdes, Walsingham and Knock. We also welcome volunteers to help in our offices and Pilgrim Centres. If you would like a free booklet please write to: THE LITTLE WAY ASSOCIATION, Sacred Heart House, 119 Cedars Road, Clapham Common, London SW4 0PR.

Marriage Encounter. see Worldwide Marriage Encounter.

Mary's Meals. Mary's Meals provides one good meal to some of the world's poorest children every school day. Our work is named after Mary, the mother of Jesus, who brought up her own child in poverty.

Our vision is that every child receives one daily meal in their place of education and that all those who have more than they need, share with those who lack even the most basic things. Working together with those who share our vision, we believe there is no good reason why this cannot be realised.

Our mission is to enable people to offer their money, goods, skills, time, or prayer, and through this involvement, provide the most effective help to those suffering the effects of extreme poverty in the world's poorest communities. We are now feeding 2.6m young children in 16 countries such as Malawi, Liberia, India and Haiti.

Our work is only possible because of our many dedicated volunteers across the globe – from people in the UK who raise awareness, to those in the countries we serve who rise early to cook nutritious meals for their children. If you would like to know more about us, then check out our

Rainbows: bereavement support for young people. Rainbows is a Catholic, international, not-for-profit organisation that fosters emotional healing among children grieving a loss from a life-altering crisis. Many young people suffer bereavement, such as the death of a loved one, the break-up of the family or the loss that comes through leaving homeland behind. Their feelings of hurt, bewilderment and pain can show themselves in unacceptable ways such as anger, becoming withdrawn, or getting into trouble. They need supportive adults who will let them talk about their feelings, begin to accept what has happened and eventually move on with their lives. With Rainbows, staff in school are trained to run support groups for young people, following a structured programme that allows plenty of time for talking and coming to terms with the normal feelings of grief. Staff in non-Catholic schools can also be trained, using slightly amended materials. Registered Directors for the Catholic Diocese of Southwark are Lyn and Tom Coyle and they can be contacted for further details of how Rainbows can fit into the school's support programme on T: 01622 204160 or E: tomandlyn.coyle@gmail.com

DIOCESAN SACRAMENTAL GUIDELINES

In April 2009, the diocesan policies on several of the sacraments were published in a document entitled 'Becoming more like Christ: Guidelines for the Sacrament of Baptism, Reconciliation, Holy Communion and Confirmation'. The full document is available on the Agency for Evangelisation and Catechesis webpage – aec.rcaos.org.uk/catechesis. In light of ongoing developments in catechetical practice and the publication of the Directory for Catechesis, these guidelines will be reviewed in the coming year. The Directory for Catechesis can be ordered from the Agency for Evangelisation and Catechesis website: aec.rcaos.org.uk/store

For those who have retained older editions of the directory the guidelines can be found as follows:

	Year	Page
Holy Communion	2010	139-144
Confirmation	2011	139-142
Baptism	2012	141-144
Reconciliation	2013	160-162

General Points

Diocesan policy on marriage

The Preparation for Life and Marriage which is ongoing in the home should be taken up in the primary school, developed in the secondary school, and continued for young people in the years immediately after leaving school and before they become engaged. Parents have the fundamental role while the involvement of the whole community is necessary.

The Single State – young people need to be given a clear idea of what marriage entails, not simply to prepare them for marriage but to help them when the time comes to decide responsibly whether to marry or to remain single. Those involved with preparing others should be careful not to pressurise them unwittingly into getting married by leading them to believe it is the only means of fulfilment and worthwhile aim in life for everyone. Marriage is not for everyone; some may wish to marry but for various reasons may never do so; others may have a positive calling to the single state which will be the best way of life for them. Preparation for marriage, therefore, requires something to be said about the single life, apart from the priesthood or religious life, so that its value can be appreciated and the right choice, if offered, more easily made.

An Educational and Advisory Service for Marriage must be established at deanery or parish level. This means that suitable laity, especially with personal experience of marriage, must be recruited and trained to help priests and religious in their pastoral care of the married and in the preparation of those entering marriage. Deanery Pastoral Councils are to be concerned with this apostolate. Where appropriate, other Christian churches should be invited to share in this work and ways of co-operating with them should be explored.

Schools

The Diocesan Catechetical Director and his assistants, using the services offered by organisations like the Marriage Care, will give priority to the development in our schools of a catechesis for life and marriage. Local clergy, school chaplains and governors are to co-operate in this work and to give teachers help and encouragement. School leavers require special attention.

Young People

The Director of the Diocesan Youth Service with the co-operation of local clergy is charged with developing youth work in the diocese and ensuring that within the context of his work young people will be helped to form mature attitudes towards sex and marriage. Particular attention should be given to the development needed to choose a suitable lifelong partner. The clergy should assist the Director to find suitable religious and laity to help in this work.

Those Entering Marriage

Engagement – as soon as a couple become engaged they should inform their parish priest(s) whose encouragement and co-operation are of vital importance.

Notification of Marriage – at least six months notice of a marriage is normally required and this requirement should be adequately advertised (e.g., church porches, notices, newsletters, the Diocesan Directory).

Preparation Talks – in addition to the talks and spiritual preparation given by the priests to both partners, whether Catholic or not, meetings with suitable laity who have been properly trained will be required as part of the usual preparation for marriage in the diocese. These meetings will be by special appointment for individuals or couples. A full explanation of the Church's teaching on natural family planning should always be given.

A course of talks for groups with or without discussion is useful as part of the programme of preparation. Such courses are usually best arranged at deanery rather than at parish level. Some have found "Engaged Encounter" days and weekends helpful. For those unable to follow the normal programme, a postal course should be available.

Marriage Rite – engaged couples should be encouraged to help with the preparation of their wedding by choosing the music, the readings, and the variable parts of the wedding ceremony and of the Mass.

The Married, The Clergy, The Parish, Deanery Pastoral Councils

Teaching

The Church's teaching on marriage must be proclaimed and upheld; priests and people should oppose, by word and action, influences that tend to undermine marriage.

Marriage counselling and advice on natural family planning are to be readily available at local level.

The clergy are urged to preach regularly on marriage and the family. The Catechetical Centre and adult education courses in the diocese should give adequate attention to the subject of marriage.

Marriage is to be given priority as a subject for study by priests and in-service courses will be devoted to it.

Parents must recognise that the daily example of love in a good, happy home is perhaps the best preparation for marriage that their children can receive.

Caring and Support

Recently-married couples and newly-arrived families in a parish should be welcomed and, if necessary, offered help. It is the responsibility of the parish priest to see that a group or groups of parishioners (e.g. F.S.A.) take on this apostolate. He is urged to establish Family Groups and to initiate projects that help to strengthen marriages and foster conjugal love. For some couples "Marriage Encounter" can be recommended.

Special support and care should be given to those who have experienced a marriage break-down and to single-parent families.

Home visiting by priests is a valuable means of giving support and encouragement.

Prayer

Marriage should be the subject of regular prayer, and on at least one Sunday every year each parish will celebrate a day of thanksgiving for God's gift of marriage. It is recommended that a renewal of marriage vows should be held, not during a normal Sunday Mass, but during a specially arranged Mass on a Sunday afternoon, on a weekday (when the appropriate Ritual Anniversary Mass could be used), or during an evening service or holy hour.

Permanent Married Deacons

These deacons have a special contribution to make to the apostolate of marriage and it should be developed.

Deans

The Dean will give priority to implementing this policy and will help and encourage those involved in this work in the deanery. He will describe the progress made in his deanery when he submits his parish visitation reports to the Archbishop.

The order to be observed in the recitation of the divine office and in the celebration of Mass for the year of our Lord 2025

Missa pro populo: Mass stipends

The parish priest under the Code of Canon Law is bound to say the Missa pro Populo on each Sunday and Holyday of Obligation (Canon 534.1). He may draw a stipend of £10 per Mass from general parish funds for each pro populo Mass he is obliged to offer. Priests may benefit from only one stipend on any one day. Any extra stipends must be sent to the Financial Secretary. A priest, who on the same day concelebrates a second Mass, may not accept a stipend for that Mass (Canon 951.2). On Christmas Day a priest may benefit from each stipend for each Mass celebrated.

The First Mass of Sundays and Holy Days

The Mass is the one assigned in the Calendar to the Sunday or Holyday, irrespective of the previous day's rank: Where there is concurrence of two consecutive celebrations the Mass which is of obligation has precedence. In the celebration of Vespers with the people, exception may be made to the general norm in such a way that the Office of Vespers is in harmony with the Mass. The homily and bidding prayers must be included. In addition to Easter, five solemnities have retained proper Vigil Masses and these texts are used for the first Mass, viz: Christmas, Pentecost, the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, Saints Peter and Paul and the Assumption.

Canon 1248.1: The obligation of assisting at Mass is satisfied wherever Mass is celebrated in a Catholic rite, either on the Holyday itself or on the evening of the previous day.

Parish Feasts

The titular feast and the anniversary of consecration should be celebrated each year at Mass and in the Divine Office as solemnities. If either falls on a Sunday in Ordinary Time or in the Christmas season, the solemnity takes the place of the Sunday. If either falls on a Sunday in Advent, Lent or in Eastertide, the solemnity is transferred to the following Monday or next free day. For pastoral reasons, these solemnities, when they occur during the week, may be observed on the Sunday, provided it is a Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Ritual Masses

Subject to the rules given in the approved liturgical books, proper Ritual Mass texts (Missal 1173-1294) are not allowed on Solemnities, the Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide, the days within the Easter octave, All Souls Day, Ash Wednesday and during Holy Week.

Votive Masses and Masses for Various Needs and Occasions

There are three categories:

- a. A votive Mass may normally be said only on a feria in Ordinary Time.
Readings of the feria may be used.
- b. If, in the opinion of the rector or celebrant, it is of genuine pastoral benefit, a votive Mass may be said:
 - on an obligatory memorial, and on these ferial days: in Advent, up to 16th December; in the Christmas season, from 2nd January; and in Eastertide, after Low Sunday.
 - The First Friday Mass of the Sacred Heart could be in this category, likewise Mass offered with a particular group, such as a school Mass, and Mass on an anniversary of ordination.
- c. For a more serious reason or pastoral benefit the Ordinary can permit a votive Mass on any day, except: Solemnities, the Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide, the Easter octave, All Souls' Day, Ash Wednesday and Holy Week.

The Nuptial Mass

On a Sunday or Solemnity, the Mass of the day is said, with the nuptial blessings. Excepting Holydays of Obligation, one reading may be taken from the selection provided for weddings.

On Sundays, except in Advent, Lent and Eastertide, the Nuptial Mass texts may be used if the Mass is an extra one, not at the normal published time. The Nuptial Mass is not permitted on Ash Wednesday, the Paschal Triduum and All Souls' Day.

Mass for the Dead

1. A funeral Mass may be celebrated on any day except Maundy Thursday and the Paschal Triduum, the Sundays of Advent, Lent and Eastertide, and Holydays of Obligation.
2. A Mass for the Dead may for the following reasons be celebrated on a memorial, a feria (except Ash Wednesday and Holy Week) and on the weekdays within the Christmas octave: on receiving news of death, on the day of burial and on the first anniversary of death.
3. Daily Mass for the Dead is allowed only on a feria in Ordinary Time, and on condition that the stipend intention is for the dead.

The Eucharistic Fast

Canon 919.

1. Whoever is to receive the blessed Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from all food and drink. Water and medicine do not break the fast.
2. A priest who, on the same day, celebrates twice or three times is not required to fast before the second or third celebration, even though there is not an hour's interval.
3. The elderly and those who are suffering from some illness, as well as those who care for them, may receive the blessed Eucharist without the need to fast.

Communion more than once a day

Canon 917. One who has received the blessed Eucharist may receive again on the same day only within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates, without prejudice to the provision of Canon 921.2 (viaticum). The Pontifical Commission for the Authentic Interpretation of the Code of Canon Law has stated that the meaning of Canon 917 is that one who has already received the holy Eucharist may receive it on the same day only a second time and not as often as one participates in the celebration of the Eucharist.

Holy Communion under both kinds

Provided there has been adequate catechesis, and subject after consultation to the judgement of the parish priest, permission is granted for the distribution of Holy Communion under both kinds. The permission does not apply if the number of communicants renders it impossible to guarantee due reverence, and particularly if Mass is celebrated in the open air. Each individual is free to decide whether or not to receive from the chalice. Parents are to judge whether their children have adequate understanding to receive under both kinds.

With regard to school Masses, there should be discussion with parents and teachers. (Cf. Southwark Liturgy Bulletin No. 81, November 1992. Diocesan Guidelines).

Readings at Mass

From the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, par. 358: "In the Lectionary for weekdays, readings are provided for each day of every week throughout the entire course of the year; hence, these readings will in general be used on the days to which they are assigned, unless a Solemnity, Feast, or Memorial that has its own New Testament readings, in which mention is, in fact, made of the Saint being celebrated.

"Should, however, the continuous reading during the week from time to time be interrupted, on account of some Solemnity or Feast, or some particular celebration, then the Priest shall be permitted, bearing in mind the scheme of readings for the entire week, either to combine parts omitted with other readings or to decide which readings are to be given preference over others."

There are three readings on Sundays and days of Solemnity (I Class) rank. The lectionary provides three readings also for those feasts of the Lord that are observed on a Sunday, viz. the Baptism, the Presentation and the Transfiguration of Our Lord, the Exaltation of the Cross, the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica and the Holy Family. The Common of Saints provides a source of readings for local celebrations. When there is a choice, this should be made in the light of the pastoral needs of the congregation.

Eucharistic Prayer

In Eucharistic Prayer IV its preface is an integral part of the prayer.

Eucharistic Prayer IV may not be used in a Mass where the preface is proper. The same is true of the prayers for Children's Masses, Masses of Reconciliation and Masses for Various Needs and Occasions (ICEL 1994). The Eucharistic Prayer for the Deaf must always be signed, by the celebrant.

The Eucharistic Prayer 'for use in Masses for Various Needs' may be used with the Mass formularies in pages 1295-1387 of the Roman Missal. Full directions are in the English text issued by the National Liturgy Office, and the text of the Pray is found in the Roman Missal page 804ff.

Gloria and Credo

'Gloria in excelsis' is said on Sundays, except in Advent and Lent, and on solemnities and feasts. It may be said at solemn local celebrations.

The Creed is said on Sundays and solemnities. It may be said at solemn local celebrations. The Apostles' Creed is permitted as an alternative to the Nicene Creed (Roman Missal pg 563).

Asperges/Vidi Aquam

The Rite of Sprinkling and Blessing with Holy Water (Roman Missal pg 1507) is permitted at Sunday Masses. It takes the place of the penitential rite and Kyrie.

Mass on Memorials of Saints

Those parts that are not proper may be taken from the Common or from the occurring weekday. The preface may be that which is appropriate to the saint or of the season. In a few cases there are proper readings; apart from this the readings of the occurring weekdays are preferred. Gloria and Creed are omitted.

The Divine Office

The office of Sundays, solemnities and ferias is as indicated in the breviary. The office of Sundays and solemnities begins with first Vespers.

On feasts, the antiphons and psalms of midday prayer and Compline are taken from the occurring weekday. At Lauds and Vespers, and in the Office of Readings, those parts that are not proper are taken from the Common.

On memorials the antiphons and psalms at each hour are from the occurring weekday unless proper ones are indicated in the breviary. The prayer is proper. At Lauds and Vespers other parts that are not proper may be taken from the Common or from the occurring weekday.

Te Deum is said on Sundays, except in Lent, and on solemnities and feasts.

Intentions are specified for each period and incorporate the days of prayer. They should be promulgated locally for use in public and private devotions – mentioned in the celebrant's introduction at Mass and included in the bidding prayers.

A votive Mass may displace the Sunday texts on Mission Sunday; a Requiem Mass is permitted on Remembrance Day.

Friday Penance

“... The Bishops [of England and Wales]... wish to remind us that every Friday is set aside as a special day of penitence, as it is the day of the suffering and death of the Lord. They believe it is important that all the faithful again be united in a common, identifiable act of Friday penance because they recognise that the virtue of penitence is best acquired as part of a common resolve and common witness.

The law of the Church requires Catholics on Fridays to abstain from meat, or some other form of food, or to observe some other form of penance laid down by the Bishops' Conference (Canon 1251). The Bishops have decided to re-establish the practice that this penance should be fulfilled simply by abstaining from meat and by uniting this to prayer. Those who cannot or choose not to eat meat as part of their normal diet should abstain from some other food of which they regularly partake. This decision will come into effect from Friday 16 September 2011”.

from a statement of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, 13th May 2011.

Holy Days of Obligation, 2025

In 2006 the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, with the approval of the Holy See on 13th July 2006, decreed that with effect from the first Sunday of Advent 2006, the three Holy Days of Obligation which are Solemnities of the Lord are transferred to Sundays.

In 2017 the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, with the approval of the Holy See on 4th August 2017, decreed that with effect from the first Sunday of Advent 2017:

1. the solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is to be observed on the date prescribed in the General Roman Calendar except when it falls on a Saturday or a Monday when the Solemnity is to be observed and the precept discharged in England and Wales on the Sunday.
2. the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is to be observed on Thursday, 6th week of Easter Time.

The current practice is retained with regard to other Holy Days of Obligation. That is, Christmas Day, the Apostles Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and All Saints will continue as at present. With the exception of Christmas Day, the discipline in England and Wales is that when these days fall on a Saturday or Monday they are transferred to Sunday.

The Pontifical Commission Ecclesia Dei in 2008 confirmed that in the Roman Rite, whichever form of the liturgy is being celebrated, the Holydays of Obligation are held in common. Where the obligation has been transferred to the Sunday, the Epiphany of the Lord, the Ascension of the Lord and Corpus Christi, this is to be followed in both Ordinary and Extraordinary celebrations of the Mass.

DIOCESAN COLLECTIONS

Missio (formerly Association for the Propagation of the Faith)

Missio is the Church's official organ for the support of the Foreign Missions. The collection taken on World Mission Sunday goes in its entirety, to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor. Missio works through local bishops, churches and missionary congregations to ensure that resources are distributed equitably and justly – on the basis of need. The money goes directly from England and Wales to the bishops in the mission territories – local church directly helping local church!

Overseas Missions

Each year one of the religious orders dedicated to missionary work is authorised to collect in the diocese, by arrangement with the parish priest. This provides the people of a parish with the opportunity to help the missionary work of so many priests, religious and lay people, and thereby be joined with the Church in spreading the message of the Gospel.

Holy Places

The places connected with Our Lord's Passion have always been centres of veneration and pilgrimage. This Good Friday collection is sent for their upkeep, and to help maintain Christian schooling in the area.

Lenten Alms

As advised by the Archbishop.

Priests Training Fund

This collection helps to meet the costs of training students for the permanent diaconate and students for the priesthood. It also supports certain forms of ongoing formation of the clergy.

World Communications Day

This collection supports the work of the Catholic Communications Network (CCN) the media office of the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales. The CCN seeks to be of service both to the Church and the world in offering professional channels of communication, and provides support for the Bishops of England and Wales and the wider Church in promoting the Gospel through the media on current issues. Its office is the focus for media enquiries on National matters, and seeks to develop the public profile of the Church and its teaching. The CCN provides up to date news releases, features and podcasts, information from the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, and trains spokesmen and women.

Catholic Education Service

The Catholic Education Service (CES) acts on behalf of the Catholic Bishops' Conference to support Catholic education. They have a strong and positive working relationship with the British and Welsh Governments', sharing the aims of high academic standards for all and increased parental choice. Catholic schools make up 10% of the national total of maintained schools. There are over 2000 Catholic schools, academies and colleges in England educating over 800,000 pupils. The Catholic Church and the Church of England together provide one-third of all of the schools in the country. The CES is the chief negotiating and advisory body on matters affecting all aspects of Catholic education, and it also provides financial assistance for school transport in rural areas.

Peter's Pence

By reason of the bond of unity and charity, the Bishops of the Church with their people join together to produce those means which the Holy Father and the Apostolic See needs to exercise works of mercy and charity, and its Services of the Universal Church.

The faithful's offerings to the Holy Father are destined to Church needs, to humanitarian initiatives and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See. The Pope, being Pastor of the whole Church, is attentive to the material needs of poor dioceses, religious institutes and of faithful in grave difficulties (the poor, children, the elderly, those marginalized and the victims of war or natural disasters; concrete aid to Bishops or dioceses in need, Catholic education, assistance to refugees and immigrants, etc.).

Day for Life

This is the Day in the Church's Life dedicated to celebrating the Sacredness of Life. The proceeds from the Day for Life collection on the last Sunday in July provide core funding for the Anscombe Bioethics Centre (formerly the Linacre Centre for Healthcare ethics), and to assist other life related activities supported by the church, usually by means of grants made to support Catholic charities working in the particular field determined by the theme of the year.

Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea):

Stella Maris is a Catholic charity supporting seafarers worldwide. They We provide practical and pastoral care to all seafarers, regardless of nationality, belief or race. Port chaplains and volunteer ship visitors welcome seafarers, offer welfare services and advice, practical help, care and friendship. Stella Maris in Great Britain is part of an international network. working in more than 250 ports around the world.

90% of world trade is transported by ship. However the life of a modern seafarer can be dangerous and lonely. They may spend up to a year at a time away from home, separated from their family and loved ones and often working in harsh conditions. Stella Maris relies wholly on voluntary contributions, and can only continue its work through the generous donations of its supporters, particularly in this collection.

Catholic Trust for England and Wales (CaTEW)

The Catholic Trust for England and Wales (formerly the National Catholic Fund) supports the legal, financial and charitable activities of the Bishops' Conference, its departments, agencies and offices. This collection helps supply the Bishops of England and Wales with the Revenue necessary for the central administration of the Church in this country.

Archbishop's Appeal

The Archbishop's Appeal has been launched to invest faith, hope, love and charity into the missionary work of the Archdiocese throughout South London and Kent, specifically the areas of Youth and Evangelisation, Faith in Action (compassion for our brothers and sisters, and care of our common home) and Clergy Care and Formation.

Catholic Youth Services

Collection taken on National Youth Sunday to support Youth Work in the Diocese and beyond, especially the Southwark Catholic Youth Service (SCYS).

Cathedral Maintenance

St George's Cathedral, Southwark, is the mother church of the Diocese. This collection helps to meet the cost of the upkeep of the Cathedral.

Crib Offerings

As advised by the Archbishop

Racial Justice Collection

Collection to support the work of the Catholic Church to promote racial justice in our schools, parishes and in wider society.

Home Mission Sunday

This collection provides the Bishops of England and Wales with resources to support 'Home Mission', the spread of the Gospel in our own country. The money collected enables a breadth of work to be done in support of parish evangelisation.

Poor Parishes (formerly the 'Needs of the Diocese' collection.)

This collection enables the Archbishop to make grants to some of the smaller parishes in the Diocese.

Sick and Retired Priests (Clergy Support Fund)

The Clergy Support Fund enables the Archdiocese of Southwark to care for clergy in their retirement, old age, and at their time of ill health, after their lifetime of service and devotion to Christ, His Church and His People. Donations ensure a dignified retirement for all of our priests.

The end of the Season of Christmas

ORDINARY TIME BEFORE LENT

In Ordinary Time no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ itself is honoured in its fulness, especially on Sundays. "On the first day of each week, which is known as the Day of the Lord or the Lord's Day, the Church, by an apostolic tradition that draws its origin from the very day of the Resurrection of Christ, celebrates the Paschal Mystery. Hence Sunday must be considered the primordial feast day." (Missal, p. 130, 4.) "Ordinary Time begins on the Monday which follows the Sunday occurring after 6th January and extends up to and including the Tuesday before the beginning of Lent; it begins again on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and ends before First Vespers (Evening Prayer I) of the First Sunday of Advent." (Missal, p. 135, 44.)

Gloria and Creed are said on Sundays in Ordinary Time; on these Sundays one of the readings may be chosen from the Lectionary, to harmonize with a designated theme of prayer for the day.

There is a choice of Sunday and weekday prefices.

On a ferial weekday there is a choice of Mass:

- of the previous Sunday, or of any Sunday in Ordinary Time,
- any saint of the day,
- any of the Masses 'for various needs and occasions',
- any votive Mass,
- a Mass for the dead.

A votive Mass may be celebrated in vestments of the colour which corresponds to the mystery or saint that is commemorated, or in the colour of the day or of the season. In a Mass for the dead, purple is preferred to black.

The end of Ordinary Time before Lent.

THE SEASON OF LENT

Lent is ordered to preparing for the celebration of Easter, since the Lenten liturgy prepares for celebration of the Paschal Mystery both catechumens, by the various stages of Christian Initiation, and the faithful, who recall their own baptism and do penance, (Missal, p. 133, 27).

During Lent:

- ferial Masses are proper to each day; on weekdays the Collect of the saint of the day may be used in place of the ferial one;
- votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted;
- no Gloria, except on Feasts and Solemnities;
- it is not permitted to decorate the altar with flowers, and the use of musical instruments is allowed only so as to support the singing.
Nevertheless, Laetare Sunday (the Fourth Sunday of Lent), Solemnities and Feasts are exceptions to this rule;
- Alleluia is not said, even on Feasts and Solemnities: care should be taken in this respect in the choice of hymns and gospel acclamation;
- there are four prefaces for Lent and two for Passiontide: some Sundays have a proper preface;
- Lenten Alms are collected throughout the season;
- the time now commences for fulfilling the precept of Easter Communion;
- a reminder for the guidelines for Friday penance is apt.

HOLY WEEK

From Palm Sunday until Low Sunday inclusive no saints' days are observed. Parish Solemnities, of consecration or title, are transferred to the Monday of Low Week.

Evening: red. First Vespers and Mass of Sunday.

Holy Week, psalter week 2.

29  SUNDAY red. NF. PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD (A), no Gloria, Passion according to Saint Luke, Creed, proper Preface.

On this day the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all Masses, by means of the Procession or the Solemn Entrance before the principal Mass or the Simple Entrance before other Masses. The Solemn Entrance, but not the Procession, may be repeated before other Masses that are usually celebrated with a large gathering of people. It is desirable that, when neither the procession nor Solemn Entrance can take place, there be a sacred celebration of the Word of God on the messianic entrance and on the Passion of the Lord, either on Saturday evening or on Sunday at a convenient time.

Arriving at the altar, the Priest venerates it. He then goes to the chair and, omitting the Introductory Rites of the Mass and, if appropriate, the Kyrie, he says the Collect of the Mass, and then continues the Mass in the usual way.

The narrative of the Lord's Passion is read without candles and without incense, with no greeting or signing of the book. It is read by a Deacon or, if there is no Deacon, by a Priest. It may also be read by readers, with the part of Christ, if possible, reserved to a Priest.

NOTE: start of British Summer Time; Holy Week, Wednesday Chrism Mass; Maundy Thursday, Easter Triduum; first Friday, Good Friday (Public Holiday), fasting and abstinence, collection for the Holy Places of Palestine; the Lenten fast continues until the Easter Vigil; Sunday next Easter Sunday, Solemnity with an Octave.

At the Cathedral:

white, the Chrism Mass: The blessing of the Oil of the Sick and of the Oil of Catechumens and the consecration of the Chrism are carried out by the Bishop. This Mass, which the Bishop concelebrates with his presbyterate, should be, as it were, a manifestation of the Priests' communion with their Bishop. To signify the unity of the presbyters diocese, the Priests who concelebrate with the Bishop should be from different regions of the diocese. After the homily the Bishop calls upon the Priests to renew publicly their priestly promises.

2 Thursday purple. FO. Thursday of Holy Week. MAUNDY THURSDAY. At Office of Readings psalm 68 (Friday week 3) may be recited.

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

"Since Christ accomplished his work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God principally through his Paschal Mystery, in which by dying he has destroyed our death, and by rising restored our life, the sacred Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year. Therefore, the pre-eminence that Sunday has in the week, the Solemnity of Easter has in the liturgical year." (Missal, p. 132, 18.)

In the evening, at a convenient time: white. The Mass of the Lord's Supper. The altar may be decorated with flowers with a moderation that accords with the character of this day. The tabernacle should be entirely empty, but a sufficient amount of bread should be consecrated in this Mass for the Communion of the clergy and the people on this and the following day.

In the beginning the solemn reception of the holy oils. Gloria (bells and organ), washing of feet (men or women, but twelve are not necessary), no Creed, proper Preface (I of the Most Holy Eucharist), proper Communicantes etc. in Eucharistic Prayer I. No dismissal but the Blessed Sacrament is incensed (kneeling) and there follows the procession to the altar of repose.

Watching continues there for a suitable time, but no solemn adoration after midnight. At an appropriate time, the altar is stripped and, if possible, the crosses are removed from the church. It is expedient that any crosses which remain in the church be veiled.

The Mass is celebrated with the full participation of the whole local community and with all the priests and ministers exercising their office. All priests may concelebrate even if they have to celebrate another Mass for the good of the Christian faithful. Vespers is not celebrated by those who have attended the Mass of the Lord's Supper. Where a pastoral reason requires it the local Ordinary may permit another Mass to be celebrated in churches and oratories in the evening and, in cases of genuine necessity, even in the morning, but only for the faithful who are in no way able to participate in the evening Mass. Care should, nevertheless, be taken that celebrations of this sort do not take place for the advantage of private persons or special small groups, and do not prejudice the evening Mass. Holy Communion may only be distributed to the faithful during Mass; but it may be brought to the sick at any hour of the day.

3 Friday red. NF. FRIDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD (GOOD FRIDAY), a day of fasting and abstinence.

The Celebration of the Passion of the Lord about 3pm:

The altar should be completely bare: without a cross, without candles and without cloths. The Liturgy of the Word (the Passion according to Saint John is read in the same way as on the preceding Sunday), the Solemn Intercessions; the Adoration of the Holy Cross; Holy Communion; papal collection for the Holy Places of Palestine (see note below). When the distribution of Communion has been completed, the ciborium is taken by the Deacon or another suitable minister to a place prepared outside the church or, if circumstances so require, it is placed in the tabernacle.

Vespers is not celebrated by those who have been present at the solemn afternoon liturgical celebration.

After the celebration, the altar is stripped, but the Cross remains on the altar with two or four candlesticks.

On this day, Holy Communion is distributed to the faithful only within the celebration of the Lord's Passion; but it may be brought at any hour of the day to the sick who cannot participate in this celebration.

RIP: Rev. Huebert Miranda 2019; John O'Toole 2025.

Collection for the Holy Places: the places connected with Our Lord's Passion have always been centres of veneration and pilgrimage. This Good Friday collection is sent for their upkeep, and to help maintain Christian schooling in the area.

4 Saturday Morning: purple. NF. HOLY SATURDAY, fast if possible until the Vigil.

Adult Christian Initiation: candidates prepare by prayer and fasting.

On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting, meditating on his Passion and Death and on his Descent into Hell, and awaiting his Resurrection.

The Church abstains from the Sacrifice of the Mass, with the sacred table left bare, until after the solemn Vigil, that is, the anticipation by night of the Resurrection, when the time comes for paschal joys, the abundance of which overflows to occupy fifty days.

Holy Communion may only be given on this day as Viaticum.

(Saint Isidore, Bishop and Doctor of the Church.)

THE SEASON OF EASTER

"The fifty days from the Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one 'great Sunday'. The first eight days of Easter Time constitute the Octave of Easter and are celebrated as Solemnities of the Lord." (Missal, p. 133, 24.)

4 Saturday Evening: white. THE EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT

The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil must take place during the night, so that it begins after nightfall and ends before daybreak on the Sunday.

Of this night's Vigil there is to be only one celebration in each church.

The Mass of the Vigil, even if it is celebrated before midnight, is a paschal Mass of the Sunday of the Resurrection:

- Blessing of the Fire, the Preparation of the Candle, procession of light, the Easter proclamation (Exsultet).

- Liturgy of the Word, at least three Old Testament readings but always that from chapter 14 of Exodus, Gloria (bells and organ), all stand for solemn Alleluia intonation, incense at gospel (A) but no lights.

- Baptismal Liturgy: Litany, Blessing of Baptismal Water, Baptisms, Receptions and Confirmations, Renewal of Baptismal Promises, no Creed, Universal Prayer.

Preface I of Easter, proper Communicantes and Hanc igitur (Eucharistic Prayer I), double alleluia at the dismissal.

A Priest who celebrates or concelebrates the Mass of the night may again celebrate or concelebrate Mass during the day. The paschal candle is lit on all the more solemn liturgical celebrations of this period. The Easter Vigil takes the place of the Office of Readings.

5  SUNDAY white. NF. EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD, Solemnity with an octave, Gloria, Sequence, Creed (or renewal of baptismal promises as at the Vigil), Preface I of Easter, proper Communicantes and Hanc igitur (Eucharistic Prayer I), double alleluia at the dismissal; after Compline and in place of the Angelus, anthem Regina Caeli.

RIP: Revv. Eric Shortle SM 1971; John McNally 1983.

Maintenance of Saint George's Cathedral collection: Saint George's Cathedral, Southwark, is the mother church of the diocese. This collection helps meet the cost of the upkeep of the cathedral.

In the Easter season each feria day has its own Mass, without Gloria. There are five seasonal prefaces. On a Memorial the preface may be of the saint or of the season. Alleluia is added to the Entrance and Communion antiphons and to the antiphons in the Divine Office unless the sense precludes it. The Sundays of Easter have precedence over all other celebrations.

Peter's Pence: by reason of the bond of unity and charity, the bishops of the Church, with their people, join together to produce those means which the Holy Father and the Apostolic See need to exercise works of mercy and charity and its service of the Universal Church. The faithful's offerings to the Holy Father are destined to church needs, humanitarian initiatives and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See. The Pope, being pastor of the whole Church, is attentive to the material needs of poor dioceses, religious institutes and faithful in grave difficulties: the poor, children, the elderly, those marginalized and the victims of war and natural disasters. Concrete aid is thus made available to bishops or dioceses in need, to Catholic education, assistance, to refugees, and immigrants, etc.

Stella Maris is a Catholic charity supporting seafarers worldwide. Its members provide practical and pastoral care to all seafarers, regardless of nationality or belief. Port chaplains and volunteer ship visitors welcome seafarers, offer welfare service and advice, practical help, care and friendship. Stella Maris in Great Britain is part of an international network working in more than 250 ports around the world. 90% of world trade is transported by ship, however the life of a modern seafarer can be dangerous and lonely. They may spend up to a year at a time away from home, separated from their family and loved ones and often working in harsh conditions. Stella Maris relies wholly on voluntary contributions, and can only continue its work through the generous donations of its supporters, particularly this collection.

The Catholic Education Service (CES) acts on behalf of the Catholic Bishops' Conference to support Catholic education. They have a strong and positive working relationship with the British and Welsh governments, sharing the aims of high academic standards for all, and increased parental choice. Catholic schools make up 10% of the national total of maintained schools. There are over 2,000 Catholic schools, academies and colleges in England and Wales educating over 800,000 students. The Catholic Church and the Church of England together provide one-third of all of the schools in the country. The CES is the chief negotiating and advisory body on matters affecting all aspects of Catholic education, and it also provides financial assistance for school transport in rural areas.

OCTOBER

"That month [October] should be considered in all countries as the month of the World Mission. The penultimate Sunday, the day proclaimed 'World Mission Sunday', is the high point. That day will be celebrated in all the local churches as a feast of catholicity and universal solidarity. On that day, Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world. Bishops and episcopal conferences will draw up special prayers for the Missions, to be inserted in the Prayers of the Faithful during Mass." (Cf. Ecclesiae Sanctae III. 3.)

THE ROSARY IN OCTOBER: those who recite five decades of the Rosary in church, or as a family, a religious community, or as a group of the faithful, may gain a plenary indulgence daily; in other circumstances a partial indulgence. A partial indulgence may be obtained daily by reciting the Litany of Loreto and the Prayer to Saint Joseph. The practice of reciting the Rosary should be explained and commended.

Missio is the Church's official organ for the support of foreign missions. The collection taken on World Mission Sunday goes in its entirety to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor. Missio works through local bishops, churches and missionary congregations to ensure that resources are distributed equitably and justly on the basis of need. The money goes directly from England and Wales to the bishops in the mission territories: local church directly helping local church.

LITURGICAL YEAR 2026-2027

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

Advent has a twofold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight.

During Advent the playing of the organ and other musical instruments, as well as the floral decoration of the altar, should be marked by a moderation that reflects the character of the season, but does not anticipate the full joy of Christmas.

Advent is a season apt for reflecting on the role in our redemption of Mary, the Mother of God. Traditionally, the anthem Alma Redemptoris Mater is sung after Compline, until 1st February.

The new lectionary cycle for Sundays begins, that is (B), the year of Mark. Weekday ferial Masses in Advent are proper to each day and the readings do not change from year to year. Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted. Advent Sundays, like those of Lent and Eastertide, have precedence over all other celebrations. The Gloria is not said in seasonal Masses in Advent; Te Deum is recited in Sunday Office of Readings.

Short Notes on Southwark MartyrsBlessed David Gonson

Was a Knight of Malta who joined the order in Malta in 1533. He returned to England in 1540 and was soon arrested on a charge of treason. The writ against him claimed that in Malta "he denied that King Henry was supreme head of the Church of England and that he had called the King a heretic". The accusation was laid by a fellow knight Sir Philip Babington and Gonson was condemned by Bill of Attainder and was executed by being hanged, drawn and quartered at St Thomas Waterings on 12th July 1541.

Blessed William Way

He was ordained priest in Laon in 1586 and came to England. He was arrested in 1587 and tried at Newgate in 1588 following the defeat of the Armada. It was decided to execute him at Kingston for propaganda reasons and he was taken there by boat and executed on 23rd September 1588 probably at Kingston Hall Gallows. According to a contemporary account he was "unbowelled alive and his bowels burnt before his face."

Blessed Edward Campion, Christopher Buxton, Robert Wilcox and Robert Widmerpool.

These four martyrs suffered together at Canterbury and before that they were in prison in London together at Marshalsea. Edward Campion was an alias used by Fr. Gerard Edwards who adopted the name Campion in honour of St Edmund Campion. He was ordained priest in 1587 and arrested at Sittingbourne just after coming to England.

Christopher Buxton was born in Derbyshire and ordained priest in Rome in 1586. He crossed to England in 1587 but was soon arrested. His "Rituale" is preserved in the church at Olney in Bucks.

Robert Wilcox was born in Chester and ordained priest in Rheims in 1585. He was arrested on landing in England at Lydd in Kent in 1586 and committed to the Marshalsea.

Robert Widmerpool was born at Nottingham in 1560 and was a layman and a tutor to the Countess of Northumberland. He was charged with "hospitality towards priests and introducing a priest into the home of the Countess". The four of them were sent for trial and execution in Canterbury and were executed on 1st October 1588.

Blessed Miles Gerard and Francis Dickenson.

They both suffered together at Rochester in 1590.

Fr Gerard had been ordained priest at Laon in 1583. He spent the next six years teaching in the Seminary at Rheims. He had only one eye and was instantly recognisable when he landed and was promptly arrested. On the same boat was Francis Dickenson who was educated as a Protestant but left for Rheims at the age of 17. He was ordained priest at Soissons, in 1589. Both these martyrs were tortured personally by the priest hunter Topcliffe but gave nothing away. They were both executed at Rochester on either the 13th or 30th April 1590. The skull and missal of Fr. Gerard are preserved at Chaigley Hall in Lancashire.

Blessed John Pibush.

Born at Thirsk, he was ordained at Rheims in 1587, arrived in England in 1589 and was attested at Moreton in the Marsh in 1593. He was tried both in Gloucester and in London and sentenced to death but his execution was deferred. He spent five years in the Kings Bench prison but eventually on 18th February 1600 he was taken to St Thomas Waterings for execution.

Blessed John and Blessed Thomas Felton.

Father and son, who both suffered for their faith. John Felton who lived at Bermondsey Abbey is best known as the person who fixed a copy of the Papal Bull excommunicating Queen Elizabeth to the gate of the Bishop of London's residence at St Paul's in 1570. However there is doubt about this and he was condemned to die for maintaining the Pope to be the head of the Church and not the Queen. He was executed at St Paul's Churchyard on 4th August 1570.

His son Thomas was four years old when his father was executed. He tried his vocation but was forced to return to England because of ill health.

On trying to return to France he was arrested and tortured most severely including spending three days in the notorious “Little Ease” cell. He was condemned to death and executed on 28th August 1588 at Brentford in Middlesex.

3 St Lawrence of Canterbury, bishop

Memorial

He accompanied St Augustine to England in 597 and upon his death, succeeded him as Archbishop of Canterbury. As archbishop, he tried unsuccessfully to bring about a reconciliation between Roman and Celtic Christianity. He died in 619.

Collect:

Lord God,
you called Saint Lawrence to preach the Gospel to unbelievers and to work for the unity of the Church.
May we remain faithful to his example
despite all difficulties and discouragement.
(We make our prayer) through our Lord.

A History of the English Church and People by St Bede the Venerable

Chapter IV

Augustine was succeeded in the archbishopric by Lawrence, whom he had nominated during his own lifetime, for he feared that even a short interval without a pastor might cause a setback to the newly established Church. In so doing, he followed the precedent set by the Church's first Pastor, blessed Peter, Prince of the Apostles, who, having established the Church in Rome, is said to have consecrated Clement as his assistant and successor. On receiving the dignity of archbishop, Lawrence gave constant encouragement and a holy example to his flock, working tirelessly to perfect the edifice of the Church whose foundations had been so nobly laid. Nor was his interest limited to the Church newly established among the English, for he sought also to extend his pastoral care to the original inhabitants of Britain, and to the Scots of Ireland adjacent to this island of Britain. For having learned that in their own country the life and customs of the Scots and Britons were unorthodox – particularly in the observance of Easter, which they did not keep at the right time, but between the fourteenth and twentieth days of the moon – he wrote a letter jointly with his fellow bishops, urging them to join with him in maintaining the unity, peace, and Catholic customs of the Christian Church established throughout the world.

19 St Alphege, bishop and martyr Memorial in Greenwich & Canterbury
Optional Memorial Elsewhere

Alphege was born in 954. He became a monk of Deerhurst in Gloucestershire, and then an anchorite at Bath. In 984 he was made Bishop of Winchester, and in 1006 Archbishop of Canterbury. When the Danes captured Canterbury in 1011 he was taken prisoner and held to ransom. He refused to ask his people to pay for his release, and was killed the following year at Greenwich.

Prayer:

God, almighty Father,
you endowed Saint Alphege with the love which is poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit;
stir up that same Spirit within the hearts of all bishops and priests that, loving Christ and not themselves, they may tend his flock with no thought of earthly gain.
We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Mass, Divine Office: Common of Pastors or Common of Martyrs

Office of Readings: Second Reading

A Reading from the Sermons of St Augustine on the Gospel of St John, Tr. CXXIII, 5.

(Bishops and priests must not profit from their flocks)
Let it be the duty of love to feed the Lord's flock ... Those who feed the flock of Christ that they may have the sheep as their own, and not as Christ's, stand convicted of loving themselves and not Christ. They are driven by the desire to boast, to wield power, or to acquire gain, and not by love of obeying, serving and pleasing God. They are convicted for all time by the words that Christ spoke thrice. The apostle complains that they seek their own. and not the things that are Jesus Christ's. What else do these words mean, "do you love me? Feed my sheep", than "if you love me, do not think of feeding yourself but feed the sheep as mine, not yours. Seek my glory in them, not your own, my power, not yours, my gain, not your own, lest you be found in the company of those who love themselves in these dangerous times. Self-love is the beginning of all evils."

The apostle, after saying, "men shall be lovers of their own selves", went on to add, "lovers of money, boastful, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, wicked, irreligious, without affection, false accusers, incontinent, implacable, without kindness, traitors, blinded, lovers of pleasure more than God, keeping the appearance of religion but denying its power". All these evils flow from what he said first, "lovers of their own selves," as from their fountain ...

Let us love, then, not ourselves but him, and in feeding his sheep let us seek the things that are his, not the things which are our own. In some unfathomable way, everyone which loves himself and not God, does not love himself. Whoever loves God and not himself he it is who truly loves himself. He who cannot live by himself will certainly die by loving himself: he does not love himself who loves himself to his own loss of life. But when God, by whom life is preserved, is loved by a man, that man by not loving himself loves himself all the more, since in order to love God by whom his life is preserved, he does not love himself.

Let not those who feed Christ's sheep be "lovers of their own selves", lest they feed them as if they were their own, and not his, and wish to gain from them as "lovers of money", or to domineer as "boastful", or glory in the honours which they receive at their hands as "proud" ...

In those who feed the sheep of Christ the love of Christ should blaze up so fiercely that it overcomes even the natural fear of death, which makes us unwilling to die even when we wish to live with Christ.

R. Even at the cost of his life Alphege would not profit at the expense of the flock of Christ * and so he lives for ever.

V. His love for Christ overcame the fear of death * and so he lives for ever.

16 St Simon Stock, priest

Memorial

An Englishman, he was Prior-General of the Carmelite Order, probably between 1256 and 1266. During his life-time he enjoyed a reputation for holiness, which was confirmed at least after his death by miracles. He died in Bordeaux where his relics were venerated. A relic was brought to England in the 1960s and is now enshrined in the Carmelite Church, Kensington; in 1951 part of his skull was brought to Aylesford where it is now venerated. By a tradition dating to the late fourteenth century, it was to Simon that Our Lady appeared and promised her special help to all who wore the brown Scapular of the Carmelite Order, which was to be a pledge of her protection and a sign of their special love for her who is the Mother of Christ and of the Church.

Prayer:

God our Father,
 by the merits and prayers of Saint Simon
 you gave to the Order of Mount Carmel a sign of the special protection of the mother of your Son,
 our Lord, Jesus Christ
 Grant that through his prayers
 we may, with Mary our Mother, come to the glory you have prepared for those who love you.
 We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ,
 your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever

Mass: Common of Holy Men and Women No.7

Divine Office: Common of Holy Men: Religious
 Office of Readings: Second Reading
 From a letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII (11th February 1950).

There is no one who is not aware how greatly a love for the Blessed Virgin Mother of God contributes to the enlivening of the Catholic faith and to the raising of the moral standard. These effects are especially secured by means of those devotions which more than others are seen to enlighten the mind with celestial doctrine and to excite souls to the practice of the Christian life. In the first rank of the most favoured of these devotions that of the Holy Carmelite Scapular must be placed – a devotion which, adapted to the minds of all by its very simplicity, has become so universally widespread among the faithful and has produced so many and such salutary fruits.

Therefore it has pleased us greatly to learn of the decision of our Carmelite Brothers, both Calced and Discalced, namely, to take all pains to pay homage to the Blessed Virgin Mary in as solemn a manner as possible on the occasion of the Seventh Centenary of the Institution of the Scapular of Our Lady of Mt Carmel. Prompted therefore by our constant love for the tender Mother of God, and mindful also of Our own enrollment from boyhood in the Confraternity of this same Scapular, most willingly do We commend so pious an undertaking and We are certain that upon it will fall an abundance of divine blessings. For not with a light or passing matter are we here concerned but with the obtaining of eternal life itself, which is the substance of that Promise of the Most Blessed Virgin which has been handed down to us. We are concerned, namely, with that which is of supreme importance to all and with the manner of achieving it safely. For the Holy Scapular, which may be called the Habit or Garment of Mary, is a sign and a pledge of the protection of the Mother of God. But not for this reason, however, may they who wear the Scapular think that they can gain eternal salvation while remaining slothful and negligent of spirit, for the Apostle warns us: "In fear and trembling shall you work out your salvation" (Phil. 2. 12). Therefore all Carmelites, whether they live in the cloisters of the First and Second Orders or are members of the Third Order Regular or Secular, or of the Confraternities, belong to the same family of our Most Blessed Mother and are attached to it by a special bond of love. May they all see in this keepsake of the Virgin Herself a mirror of humility and purity; may they read in the very simplicity of the Garment a concise lesson in modesty and simplicity: above all may they behold in this same Garment, which they wear day and night, the eloquently expressive symbol of their prayer for the divine assistance: finally may it be to them a Sign of their Consecration of the Immaculate Virgin, which (consecration) in recent times we have as strongly recommended.

19 St Dunstan, Bishop

Memorial at Canterbury
Optional Memorial elsewhere

An Anglo-Saxon he was born in 909 near Glastonbury where he was educated, became a monk and then abbot. Under his rule the monastery became the greatest centre of learning in England. He himself was a skilled artist and musician and also statesman, being summoned to court as a royal counsellor by King Eadwig. He was exiled by the King for rebuking him and spending a year at Ghent from where he was reconciled by King Edgar whose chief advisor he became, eventually becoming Archbishop of Canterbury and Pope John XII's delegate. Together with St Ethelwold of Winchester and St Oswald of York he achieved the revival of monasticism.

Prayer:

God our Father,

For your sake he was ready to suffer the loss of all things.

The-Last words of St Dunstan, from the Life written by Osbern, Precentor of Canterbury.

Always strive after peace, and do not cease to pursue it until you have secured it in heaven. Furthermore. I warn you that the people of England shall undergo fearful and prolonged calamities at the hands of foreign nations but in the end the pity of God will descend upon them. It will however, be opportune for you to bear in mind these words, so that whether such things should come to pass for the correction of your faults, or for the perfecting of your virtues, you may always submit your souls to the will of God, lest like bad sons you should esteem the flatterer highly and hold the teacher in contempt (which God forbid). Assuredly, no man's suffering is so great, or his merit so surpassing as to deserve the vision of God Almighty, the vision of happy Eternity the vision of Eternal Truth, of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Moreover, if God does not consider the natural goodness of his mercy a man suffers nothing but what is due to him through his own fault by the just judgement of God.

Richard de Wych, born in 1197 at Droitwich, Worcestershire, studied at Oxford, Paris and Bologna. In 1235 he was made chancellor of Oxford University and legal advisor to the Archbishop of Canterbury. Death overtook Richard at Dover in 1253 while engaged in preaching the crusade. He was canonised in 1262.

Excerpt from John Capgrave on the preaching and death of Richard.
 It would be difficult to give an adequate account of Blessed Richard's labours. He zealously fulfilled the duty of preaching, even beyond his own diocese he brought fresh heart to the contrite, he heard and instructed those who confessed, he absolved the penitent, he answered those who sought advice, he gave new hope to those in despair, he encouraged the eager, he strengthened the fearful in a word he became all things to all men.
 The Pope delegated him to preach the cross for the relief of the Holy Land, and so he set out from the Sanctuary of Chichester and made his way along the coast to the City of Canterbury. Ten days before reaching the wellknown port of Dover, he fell sick. However, he continued to labour in the Lord's vineyard day by day devoting himself unremittingly to preaching, hearing confessions, confirming children, and even conferring Sacred orders, although this led to the exhaustion of his bodily strength. He said that he could not recover from this illness, and made known the exact day of his death, And so it was that in the presence of religious, priests clerics and the faithful, Blessed Richard prayerfully rendered his soul to his Creator so being numbered among the citizens of Heaven.

Ch.V, 2-3.7

A Reading from Saint Bonaventure on The Mystical Vine.

We do not apply the term 'passion' to the one day only on which the Lord dies, but to the whole extent of his life; for the entire extent of Christ's life was an example and a martyrdom. Though we set forth in a few words, let us ponder at length in our thoughts His severe fastings, His long vigils, His frequent prayers, His assiduous labours in the sweat of His brow, His untiring efforts as he went about the towns and villages, teaching, curing the sick. How often did he suffer hunger and thirst, He 'the Bread of Life' He 'the fountain of water springing up unto life everlasting. Let us remember his forty-day fast, after which He was hungry; let us run to Him as He returns from the Wilderness to the company of men; let us behold his beloved face!

Finally, let us consider the agony of the last day: then we shall, of necessity, become aware of what disfigured his body. Let us see Him in the place where, in His own words, His soul became 'sad, even unto death,' as 'he began to feel dread and to be exceedingly troubled'.

As we witness the further events of this dreadful night we see Him seized, bound, dragged away, shoved around, spat upon, hit in the body and slapped in the face: we see him crowned with thorns, clothed in a scarlet cloak, derided by mock adoration and genuflections, struck with a reed, ridiculed in a white vestment, torn with a sharp scourge, burdened with His own cross - for He was made to carry the cross that was to carry Him. This is the Jesus you are to behold! No room for delight, no fairness in His face. Who in truth would look for any trace of beauty in this martyred body.

Come, I pray, and share my sorrow, all of you who desire to rejoice in the Lord. Behold how your Strong One is broken, your Desirable One disfigured; behold your Peaceful One dying in battle. Where are now the cheeks flushed with life, the skin fair as snow. Where in this ravaged body will you find any beauty? Behold they have passed away, the days of our Day, of Jesus most kind, the only Day without darkness. His bones have been parched like firewood, His heart cut down and dried like dross; He has been lifted up and cast down to the depths. Yet, throughout this external disgrace, He has kept all his inner beauty and honour.

Do not, then, despair for Him in His affliction. Those who are led only by appearances saw on the cross Him who is 'fairer in beauty than the sons of men' deprived of beauty or human sightlessness. They saw a disfigured face and a distorted body. Yet from this disfigurement of our Saviour flowed the price of our grace. We have seen, at least in part, the dark and outward ugliness of the body of our most loving Jesus. But who shall tell of the inner beauty of Him in whom 'dwells all the fulness of the Godhead'? Let us, too, be deformed outwardly in our bodies, together with Jesus deformed, that we may be reformed internally, to companion Jesus most fair. Let us in our own body, conform to the body of our Vine, so that 'the body of our lowliness' may be reformed through conformity 'to the body of his glory'.

One of three daughters of St Domneva, Mildred was born in the second half of the 7th century. She was sent to a French convent in Celles to be educated, and on her return she received the Benedictine Habit from St Theodore of Canterbury at the Minster in Thanet; she later succeeded her mother as the Abbess.

St Mildred died about 725 A.D. and was canonized immediately by popular acclaim. Many miracles were wrought through her intercession.

Office of Readings: Second Reading

One of the best loved of the Anglo-Saxon saints was Mildred of Thanet whose name means Peaceful Council. An ancient sequence speaks of her as "Pearl of the Mercians, crowning glory of Canterbury, star of England shining even across the sea."

These great praises were truly applicable to St Mildred. In her life she is described as being a woman of great charity and humility who spent long hours in prayer. She was an able administrator of a large flourishing monastery.

It is written of her that she fasted often, was a true comforter to all the poor and distressed, and that she was of an easy, tranquil disposition, being greatly loved by all.

William of Malmerbury wrote that her relics which were enshrined in St Augustine's Canterbury in 1033 A.D. were venerated above all the relics in that holy place; being famed as she was for her piety and sweetness of character.

Alternative Second Reading for St Mildred

St Bernard writes. "The soul that loves God perfectly is married to Him. What is more delectable than this likeness between the soul and God? What is more to be desired than that charity which brings it about that, not content with the teaching of human masters, you approach, O soul, the Word Himself, and remain constantly united to Him, familiarly turning to Him in everything, consulting Him about all that goes on: your intellect is as capable of knowing Him, now, as your Will is courageous in its desires ... This is no mere contract between the soul and the word it is a perfect union in which the fact of willing and not-willing the same things makes one spirit out of two beings." (Sermo 83 In Cantica)

Born at Tarsus in Cicilia, c602, he became a monk in Rome. He was 60 years old when Pope Vitalian appointed him to the see of Canterbury. His contribution to consolidating or establishing dioceses, promoting learning and setting up schools was truly impressive. Under him the first national council was convened in 673 at Hertford. Although his activities involved him in controversies with St Chad and St Wilfrid these were conducted in a spirit of charity. He died in 690.

Bede: A history of the English Church and People Book 4 ch. 2
Theodore arrived in his See on Sunday May 27th in the second year after his consecration, and held it for twenty-one years. Soon after his arrival he visited every part of the island occupied by the English Peoples, and received a ready welcome and hearing everywhere. He taught the Christian way of life and the canonical method of keeping Easter. Theodore was the first Archbishop whom the entire English Church obeyed, and, as I have observed, since both he and his companion Adrian were men of learning both in sacred and secular literature, they attracted large numbers of students into whose minds they poured the wholesome waters of knowledge day by day. In addition to instructing them in the sacred Scriptures, they also taught their pupils poetry, astronomy, and the calculation of the Church Calendar. In proof of this some of their students still alive today are as proficient in Latin and Greek as in their native tongue. Never had there been such happy times as these since the English settled in Britain, for the Christian Kings were so strong that they daunted all barbarous tribes. The people eagerly sought the new-found joys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and all who wished for instruction in the reading of the Scriptures found teachers ready to hand. The knowledge of Sacred music, hitherto limited to Kent, began to spread to all the English Churches. During his visitation, Theodore consecrated bishops in suitable places, and with their assistance, corrected abuses wherever he found them.

Taken from "The life of Man" by the Venerable Bede.

King Edwin, therefore, delaying to receive the word of God at the preaching of Paulinus and using for sometime, as had been said to sit several hours alone. and seriously to ponder within himself what he was to do, and what religion he was to follow the man of God came to him and laid his right hand on his head, and asked, "Whether he knew that sign?" The king in a trembling condition was ready to fall down at his feet but he raised him up, and in a familiar manner said to him, "Behold by the help of God you have escaped the hands of the enemies whom you feared.

Behold you have of his gift obtained the kingdom which you desired. Take heed not to delay that which you promised to perform; embrace the faith, and keep the precepts of Him who, delivering you from temporal adversity, has raised you to the honour of a temporal kingdom; and if from this time forward, you shall be obedient to his will, which through me He signifies to you, He will not only deliver you from the everlasting torments of the wicked, but also make you a partaker with Him of His eternal kingdom in Heaven: Another of the king's men approving of his words added: The present life of man, O King, seems to me, in comparison of the time, which is unknown to us, like the swift flight of the sparrow through the room wherein you sit at supper in winter with your commanders and ministers, and a good fire in the midst, whilst the storms of rain and snow prevail abroad, the sparrow, I say, flying in at one door, and immediately out at another whilst he is within is safe from the wintry storm, but after a short space of fair weather, he immediately vanished out of your sight, into the dark winter from which he had emerged. So this life of man appears for a short space, but of what went before, or what is to follow, we are utterly ignorant. If, therefore, this new doctrine contains something more certain. it seems Justly to deserve to be followed." The other elders and king's counsellors, by divine inspiration spoke to the same effect.
